Notes from the boss.....

On the bright side, Jeff Chandler has had the operation on his injured knee. The specialist has replaced the main ligament and we are told that other areas of the knee are generally in good order.

Now it's a matter of Jeff making a full recovery but he's going to have to accept the duration of time.

Another sidelined player is Peter Bell who had a similar operation during the summer and he's now progressing well after several weeks at Lilleshall Rehabilitation Centre. Peter is now at a stage where he can do light jogging and it's the start of a long come back.

After the Darlington game last Saturday it can only be said that the players just weren't positive enough all round. They should stand up and be counted.

I am looking for them to show the type of form as they did in the earlier part of the season. Each player will have to take more individual responsibility in all areas of the pitch and then the chances around the goal will in—variably increase.

Today we welcome the Directors, Players and Supporters of Carlisle United. I have seen Carlisle play twice this season and I have been very impressed with their approach and particularly going forward.

Fair enough, they have conceded a few at the back but I think that adds to the entertainment for the spectators. They will be a stiff test for our defence. They certainly show a positive approach and this reiterates the point I'm stressing to my players.

We welcome Peter Barnes to the Club and if he sees plenty of the ball he will be an asset to us. He's had problems but we want him to show what he can do here at Burnden. He's no problems in having to move house or anything and he will be encouraged to go out and show his worth.

Cumbria's only Football League club, Carlisle, have had to weather the disappointment of being relegated in successive seasons. This season they will be playing in the Fourth Division for the first time in 24 years.

Carlisle had to fight two battles last season – on the playing and financial sides. The decline in playing status has not just happened over two seasons but over a number of years. Operating without a reserve side meant that talent had to be bought or brought in and even free transfers created financial difficulties for Carlisle.

The term free transfer is a misnomer, says the club, with a two-year contract the current norm for players. Even small clubs like the Cumbrians are committed to a sizeable outlay for a team, especially when there were no youngsters being brought through youth teams.

Carlisle say that team injuries which would have presented big problems for First Division sides, dogged manager Harry Gregg.

Paying the wages of the first team squad led to the sale of midfielder Mick Halsall to Grimsby for £35,000, and Scott McGarvey soon followed. The two sales alleviated the financial problems but did not solve them and Carlisle still say the first priority is to get back on a sound financial footing.

The club hopes to have two teams in the Lancashire League this season for the first time, in the hope of developing its own youngsters.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES!

Last week saw the first signs of winter, with five matches falling foul of the torrential rain, three from the First Division.

Nottingham Forest are creeping up on the 'blind side', their away win at Derby moved them into 5th spot on goal difference. Their victory was secured by a Paul Wilkinson effort, who had been quiet of late.

Chelsea found Goodison Park not to be a happy hunting ground this time as Everton sparkled in a 4-1 victory. Bryan Robson scored at both ends in United's 4-2 away win at Sheffield Wed.

In Division 2, Blackburn shared the spoils after their long trek to Bourne-mouth but Manchester City chalked up their second home defeat at the hands of Sheffield United.

Oldham, who sold their Scottish International 'keeper Andy Goram to Hibernian also faltered away to Lou Macari's high flying Swindon.

In Division 3, neighbours Bury could only scrape a draw, their fourth at home to date, against Brentford whom Martin Dobson reckons will be a force here.

Last Tuesday's visitors Preston, got three valuable points against Port Vale, thanks to two goals in the last five minutes. Wigan continued their bad run going down 4-1 at Sunderland in front of 13,000 Wearsiders.

In Division 4, Scarborough still head the pack thanks to a 3-1 victory over challengers Exeter, who visit Burnden next Tuesday. Asa Hartford's Stockport who have won more away than at home failed again by the odd goal against Peterborough.

Rochdale who visited Tranmere for a Friday night fixture came away from Prenton Park after a 6-1 thrashing and 'Dale keeper Keith Welch kept the scoreline down with a fine display.

Darlington . . . 1 Bolton Wanderers . . 0

Bolton were robbed of a point by an inspired substitution from Darlington boss Dave Booth.

He delayed sending on Bell until the 85th minute. But it worked like magic when Bell scored the last-gasp winner.

Leading scorer Currie who would have had a hat-trick but for Felgate in the second half.

Bolton were a sad letdown. Even the illustrious Barnes could do nothing against Rookie full-back Outterside.

It was left to one of their substitutes to instil a little menace into their play.

But Thompson, on after only five minutes, got through just twice — and shot wide both times.

BILL WADDINGTON

Granada T.V.

We considered ourselves fortunate to persuade the quiet, shy and independent Percy Sugden to come out of his shell — or rather Community Centre down Coronation Street.

He laid aside his cloth cap, talked and reminisced about his passion for football, and his local team 'Oldham Pathetics' — sorry Athletic. "When I was a kid," he said "admission was 4d and I'd wait for three quarter game until the gates opened and get in for nothing."

Bill's now an active 71 yet he recalled, "they had a fellow called Tommy Reid, he looked as though he was pregnant but he could score goals. I remember Oldham once playing Sheffield Wednesday in the latter stages of the F.A. Cup and lost, all the curtains in Oldham were drawn that day."

In real life Bill Waddington is a great admirer of skills and possesses some himself for he made 800 appearances as a comedian in the theatres. He used to tell audiences about the Matthews—Mortensen partnership, one which produced many goals for Blackpool.

"Matthews was so skilful that when he put over a centre, he'd make sure the lace was facing away so as not to hurt Morty's head," said Bill.

Then there was the one about sending 2/6d postal order to his beloved Oldham. "I got a lovely letter back asking me which player I wanted," he grinned.

Bill Waddington featured on such radio shows as Workers Playtime, Round the Halls, Blackpool Night and Sherman's Music Hall and claims to hold the record at Bolton's Grand Theatre. That should revive a few memories. One of Bill's highlights was appearing on the Royal Command Performance in front of the Queen, along with Morecambe and Wise and George Formby. "I said to her how nice of you to turn up."

Back to football Bill says, "It's a wonderful game, but today it's more commercial and faster but I wouldn't say its more skilful. Football was played as it should be played in those days and remember we invented the game. Why it has to be followed up these days with hooliganism is bemusing."

There's a certain resemblance to Percy Sugden in the 'Street' and Bill Waddington in natural life. He is a very proud man and particularly that he was involved in the invasion of Normandy but he was taken aback last year when Eamonn 'pulled him' for This is your Life. He had to admit he was shocked but says he remembered all the appearing guests except the girls who had changed their name through marriage.

Jeff Martin, Liverpool.

Dear Sir,

I was interested to read in the programme v Wolves, the article on the Wolves v Bolton game on 22 November, 1958. I was at that game and amongst my collection, I have a copy of the programme from which a page was produced. My records show that in addition to the player change mentioned, there was a positional change.

Clamp moved to left half (No. 6) and Slater played right half (No. 4). Writing in that programme Ivan Sharpe notes that the previous week Bolton, who had cost £10 a man signing on fee, had won 6-3 against a team with a £45,000 forward, Manchester United and Albert Quixall. Joe Mercer called the fee for Quixall, 'a Frankenstein monster saying that the transfer market had gone mad and that every 'tin pot performer with a pair of boots is tagged a £10,000 bargain by his Club.'

I wonder what Joe thinks of the latest spending by Graeme Souness and Rangers? Ivan Sharpe also notes that Billy Wright had just been selected for his 99th appearance for England and was expected to make his 100th at Wembley against Scotland. This was a record that Ivan Sharpe said would never be equalled. How wrong he was as Bobby Charlton, Bobby Moore, Kenny Dalglish and Pat Jennings have proved with possibly Peter Shilton also reaching his century.

How about a regular article in the Bolton programme looking at topics and issues from programmes of the past and relevance today?

£5,000 LIFELINE DRAW

Come half time today and some lucky Lifeline member will become £5,000 better off for it's the quarterly draw. In addition there is the normal weekly £1,000 prize, so there's a lot of money to be won.

Coming up shortly is the really big one — the Apartment in Tenerife. Commercial Manager Alf Davies and President Nat Lofthouse have just returned from a business trip to the island to tie up all the loose ends in readiness for it's new occupants.

What's going on here? Surely not a new signing. It was the start of the annual trip to Blackpool for mentally handicapped children and organised by Bolton Taxi Drivers.

Bolton Wanderers contributed to the outing and we have just received acknowledgement from Fund Secretary, Mrs P. Best who is delighted that this years event surpassed previous years efforts.

5 YEARS AGO. 9th October, 1982. The Wanderers took a point from a 2-2 draw with Rotherham United at Burnden Park. Barry Seaman gave United an early lead before Chris Thompson, who was making his first appearance of the season, equalised. Ian Moores headed Bolton in front in the 33rd minute and Gerry Gow levelled the scores in the 54th minute.

16th October, 1982. Bolton fell into the bottom three of the second division with a single goal defeat at bottom side Middlesbrough. The home side, managerless, and without a win all season, broke their luck thanks to a Garry MacDonald goal on the hour. The crowd of 5521 was, at the time, Boro's lowest post-war League crowd.

10 YEARS AGO. 15th October, 1977. Two goals from on loan striker Frank Worthington gave the Wanderers victory over Mansfield Town at Burnden Park. His first goal came in the 71st minute, shooting home a Neil Whatmore pass, and his second two minutes later was a spectacular header from a Peter Reid cross.

Wanderers forward Steve Taylor joined Oldham Athletic in a £40,000 deal. Taylor scored sixteen goals in forty League appearances for the club but had made only one appearance during the current campaign. Frank Worthington signed for the Wanderers in a £90,000 deal with Leicester City to become, at the time, the clubs record signing.

15 YEARS AGO. 7th October, 1972. Bolton went down 3-2 at Walsall with Barry Siddall making his debut in goal. The Midlanders were three goals up at half time but goals from Roy Greaves and Paul Jones reduced the arrears.

11th October, 1972. John Byrom, in his first game as captain of the Wanderers, scored twice in a 3-0 win over Swansea at Burnden. Garry Jones scored the other to put Bolton into third place in the third division.

14th October, 1972. The attendance at Burnden went over seven thousand for the first time in season 1972/73 but they were poorly entertained with a 0-0 draw against Scunthorpe United.

RESERVES NEWS

MIDDLESBROUGH ROVERS RESERVES 2

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES 1

30th September, 1987.

Bolton Reserves went down to their first away defeat of the season despite holding a half time lead and looking capable of extending their unbeaten run.

Nick Brookman netted his fourth goal of the season when, in the ninth minute, he clipped the ball into an empty net from twenty yards after a defensive mix up involving Boro' keeper Kevin Poole.

Steve Elliott almost increased the Wanderers lead in the first minute of the second half only to see his goalbound shot deflected over the bar.

Middlesbrough equalised in the 53rd minute with a goal out of the blue. Archie Stephens turned to rifle home from twenty yards with a bemused Wanderers defence caught napping.

The home side's winner came in the 78th minute and again the Wanderers contributed to their own downfall. Brian Laws was allowed too much space and a clear run at goal to shoot into the corner of the net.

Neil Whatmore came on for the final quarter of an hour and he went close to an equaliser with a close range header. Ian Callaghan was also unlucky with a long range shot just off target whilst it was left to two defenders to go close with other efforts with the forwards having a rare off day.

Mark Winstanley headed narrowly wide after a corner and Derek Scott made a good run from well inside his own half only to send his shot inches wide of the target.

Team: Scott, McKeown, Thompson, Darby, Winstanley, Booth, Callaghan, Stevens, Elliott, Brookman. Subs: Whatmore for Booth, Hughes.

NICE ONE NAT!

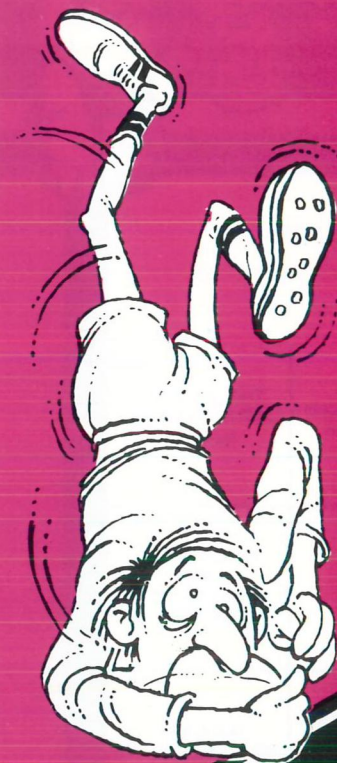

Came as a nasty surprise being dropped for the Preston programme, but hopefully after working hard in training this week, the Editor will have had a rethink and reinstated me for today's match against Carlisle. The Cumbrian side make a quick reappearance to Burnden after visiting us for a Third Division clash back in April, on that day we came out 2-0 winners, let's hope today's game turns out to be a Wanderers victory. Although Harry Gregg's side are sure to be a tough nut to crack.

Mentioning Harry Gregg, always takes you back down Memory Lane and his days with Manchester United, and the 1958 Cup Final when Nat's double gave us our last F.A. Cup Final victory. A short while after that great victory Nat took over the Bolton Castle Pub up at Tonge Moor and one evening Mr Gregg decided to visit Nat, when being served at the bar, just about to hand over the appropriate money, Nat turned round and issued that never to be forgotten statement, "It's alright Harry, I don't charge goalkeepers". It's a true story folks or at least I think it is.

It's good to see Peter Barnes down here, what a coup that was by Phil after weeks of negotiations. Hundreds of the Wanderers travelling army made the way up to Darlington last weekend for Peter's debut, unfortunately we all went away disappointed with the result, but it's nice to know Lord Lucan is alive and well and a season ticket holder in Darlington's main stand.

Don't forget it's only two weeks away from our big away day outing down the Road to Rochdale, the Dale have had a indifferent start to the season so far. But with Tommy Canon as Chairman, Eddie Gray as Manager and remixed Gracie Fields records playing all around Spotland, who knows we might be in for a cracker.

At least two coaches have been booked for this trip the coach drivers are rumoured to be Mark Thatcher and Mark Philips, with the respective coaches leaving at different times, Mark Thatcher's coach leaves at 8.30 in the morning but unfortunately with no guarantee of finding the Spotland ground before kick off. Mark Philips coach on the other hand leaves at 2.45 and should arrive at Rochdale around 2.50, don't worry if the Police stop the driver for speeding as Magistrates round the country have been told "not to MARK his card."

READER'S POSTBAG!

Miss Suzanne Holden of Farnworth, Bolton writes:

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing for two things. On the profile page, you said to write and ask for your favourite football player.

Although my favourite player has gone, I would like to see the Youth professionals, Ian Stevens, Julian Darby and Nicky Brookman. I would be very pleased to see these three on the profile page.

My second thing is a complaint. At BWFC you want to see families back into football, then how come I haven't seen a woman in 'Face in the Crowd'. Don't women count as fans. It would be nice for a woman or child to win the book instead of men all the time.

EDITOR'S COMMENT!

You just beat us to it Suzanne, but if you look at 'Spotlight' page today you could have a pleasant surprise. With regard to your comments on 'Face in the Crowd' the female aspect has been noticed and we have some bonny women supporters, but we haven't yet spotted one wearing an hearing aid or picking her nose!

Most children like to stand near the front and become obscured by the fence.

However for your benefit today we have nominated two. (See 'Face in the Crowd' page).

BURNDEN 7-A-SIDE FOOTBALL LEAGUE

NOTEBOOK

LUCK TURNS!

Last Saturday's defeat at Darlington was the first suffered by the Wanderers at Feethams. It looked as though another clean sheet was on the cards, having kept three in the last three visit's, but the Quakers last minute winner turned the tables.

The defeat was Bolton's 700th post war Football League defeat on opponents grounds and it was a pity it had to come on a ground where the club had previously been unbeaten.

Wanderers striker Trevor Morgan made his 300th Football League appearance at Darlington although it is one he will probably want to forget as he was substituted in the second half. Trevor has reached his milestone with Bournemouth (2 spells), Mansfield, Bristol City (2 spells), Exeter City and Bristol Rovers along with his eleven Bolton appearances.

PROGRAMME FAIR!

The 13th Annual Bolton Football Programme Fair will be held tomorrow the 18th October in the banqueting suite at the Pack Horse Hotel in Bradshawgate, Bolton.

It commences at 11 am and goes on to 3.30 pm, thousands of programmes both old and new will be available.

Junior Whites will, as usual, be admitted free upon production of their membership card.

REFLECTIONS!

Carlisle United visit Burnden Park today for the 23rd Football League game with the Wanderers.

United have a fair record at Burnden although their last two League visits have ended in a Wanderers win. In December 1982, Paul Jones scored the only goal of the game, whilst last season, on Easter Saturday, the Wanderers won 2-0. This was Bolton's first win in six games, the first goal coming from player manager Phil Neal's 25 yard free kick, the second from Ian Stevens, in the final minute. By then United were down to ten men, having had John Cooke sent off, although they were unlucky to see a Billy Wright volley strike the crossbar.

Whilst Carlisle have failed to score on their last two league visit's to Burnden the Wanderers have done likewise on their visit's to Brunton Park. In 1982/83 Bolton crashed 5-0, whilst Last February, a bottom of the table tussle produced a goalless draw.

OUT & ABOUT

ONE MAN'S VIEW!

When Tommy Docherty was manager at Manchester United, he purchased two relatively 'unknown' wingers in Steve Coppell from Tranmere and Gordon Hill from Millwall. Both were classed as out and out flank men and both progressed to England status.

Gordon Hill is still in football having signed for G.M. Vauxhall League side Stafford Rangers at the start of the current season. He says, "I'm controlling midfield nowadays and really enjoying it. There's no difference between the Vauxhall Conference League and the Fourth Division."

Eventually Gordon would like to have a go in football management but he's prepared to be patient and learn all the in's and out's at Conference League level.

He said in a confident manner, "If I did get into management I would bring my type of game back. I would go to Brazil for my type of players, because there's nothing here."

He reckons that fans share his view and continued, "I'm just stating facts as a professional, but listening to the fans on the terraces it would appear they agree."

Gordon still lives at Macclesfield and played in two Cup Finals in 1976 and 77, picking up 7 England caps in a colourful career.

LET'S TEST YOUR WITS!

For the sheer fun of it let's test your wits this week. We have pulled out a few nominations from the 'Face in the Crowd' and we would like you to put captions alongside some of the expressions.

Here are some examples:

a. I see no ships.

b. Those blasted mosquitos get everywhere.

c. It's been a long, hard week.

d. Wish I'd put my teeth in.

SPOTLIGHT

Nicky Brookman

Nick is on the first step of the ladder as he sets his sights on becoming a successful pro-footballer. At just 19, Bolton is his fourth club, having been at Newport County, Wrexham and Aston Villa if only for short spells.

He was born in Manchester, adopted and moved to Chester — hence the hint of scouse in his accent. At 5 foot 10 inches and 10 stone 7 lbs, he is still developing. He attended Chester Catholic High School and he's encouraged by schoolmates who travel to see him play.

He simply wrote in for a trial and was introduced to the Wanderers via Steve Carroll's youth team but the biggest influence on his short career is his dad and his old P.E. teacher, Mr Dempsey.

Nick made his Wanderers debut against today's visitors after Phil Neal had monitored his progress. He was a member of the successful Youth Team which won the Lancashire Cup last term, but he still recalls earlier days when at Newport, when playing Portsmouth. "I was only 16 and came up against Mick Kennedy and he gave me a really rough ride but it made me realise just how difficult it is to reach the top."

His favourite other team is Manchester City and Maine Road his favourite away ground. Nick likes scoring goals and going for a meal but dislikes smoking. Spandau Ballet top his musical tastes and favourite T.V. programme is 'Only Fools & Horses'.

Nick has already earmarked his player of the future — that's Mike Jefferies, a Y.T.S. graduate here at Burnden. He has a long distance girlfriend in Emma who lives in Middlesex but visits Bolton as often as she can.

TODAY'S REFEREE

Philip L. Wright (Northwich)

Mr Wright commenced refereeing in 1975 and progressed through to Football League level via the mid-Cheshire and Northern Premier Leagues. He was elected to the League Referees list only last year but has had a taste at European level when he officiated the line for a 3rd round UEFA Cup tie between KAA Gent and IFK Gothenburg. Philip's pastimes are running, squash and cricket. Away from football he works at I.C.I.
